

VIRTUAL BOOK STUDY

“REMEDIES FOR SORROW”

BY MEGAN NIX

Remedies for Sorrow is a memoir by Megan Nix about her journey to discover the truth about her daughter Anna's condition to raise awareness about the dangers of congenital cytomegalovirus (cCMV). This is a condition that can cause birth defects and developmental delays.

The prevalence of cCMV is similar to Down's Syndrome, yet widely unknown to many.

Participants are responsible for obtaining their own book.

When: Summer 2026 (June & July)

Where: Online Asynchronous

Cost: No charge

CEUs: 15 hours (includes reading and activities)

Who: Geared towards special education staff working in early childhood settings, though the content is relevant to all.

Registration: Information not yet available

Materials: Participants will need a computer to access the course.

